

God Made All Things

Mary ran to Little Yellow Daisy.

She said,

“Little Yellow Daisy, who made you?”

Little Yellow Daisy said,

“God made me.

God made me for you.

God made me because He loves you.”

Mary threw a kiss to Little Yellow Daisy and ran on.

Soon she saw Big Oak Tree.

Mary said,

“Big Oak Tree, who made you?”

Big Oak Tree said,

“God made me.

God made me for you.

God made me because He loves you.”

Mary threw a kiss to Big Oak Tree and ran
on.

Soon she saw Big Red Apple.

Mary said,

“Big Red Apple, who made you?”

Big Red Apple said,

“God made me.

God made me for you.

God made me because He loves you.”

Mary threw a kiss to Big Red Apple and ran on.

Soon she saw Singing Brook.

Mary said,

“Singing Brook, who made you?”

Singing Brook said,

“God made me.

God made me for you.

God made me because He loves you.”

Mary threw a kiss to Singing Brook and ran on.

Soon she saw Blue Cloud.

Mary said,

“Blue Cloud, who made you?”

Blue Cloud said,

“God made me.

God made me for you.

God made me because He loves you.”

Mary threw a kiss to Blue Cloud and ran
on.

Soon she saw White Lamb.

Mary said,

“White Lamb, who made you?”

White Lamb said,

“God made me.

God made me for you.

God made me because He loves you.”

Mary threw a kiss to White Lamb and ran
on.

She ran home to her mother.

She said,

“Mother dear, who made you?”

Mother said,

“God made me.

God made Father.

God made you, too.

God made all things.

He made all things for you.

He made all things because He loves you.”

Mary said,
“God made all things for me!
How good God is!
Thank You, dear God, thank You!”
